CHALLENGE!(5 DIFFERENCES TO IND)

THE LION OF ADWA.

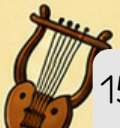

Built in 1930, this famous statue honors Emperor Menelik II, who led Ethiopian forces to victory at the Battle of Adwa. During the Italian occupation, it was hidden by the invaders but recovered and put back after liberation. The statue stands at Menelik Square—the "point zero zero" where all major highways are measured from!

Selam Finds!

Explore the magic of Buhe! Buhe is a joyous traditional Ethiopian festival of lights and blessing, celebrated under a full moon. Boys and girls go from house to house singing lively songs, and the whole village gathers for a grand bonfire. Elders share blessings and yummy traditional bread bread (like Mulmul Dabo). Get ready to sing, dance, and share the joy!

Can you find these 5 traditional Buhe items?
